

MAP Assessment®

Unlock your management potential with MAP Assessment. MAP Assessment, previously known as the Managerial Assessment of Proficiency, is a unique developmental tool designed to accurately assess the competencies of your existing and aspirant managers. It is currently the only objective management assessment tool on the market and Developing Potential UK are one of a limited number assessors licensed to deliver it..

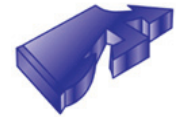

Why Invest?

- Incorporate into your management development programme to assess and develop competencies
- Save time, resources and money by Identifying specific knowledge gaps and areas for development in your management development programmes
- Use with Junior, Middle, Senior, Executive and aspirant managers as a basis for structured management development
- Receive a personal and comprehensive 7 page report with feedback session
- Be benchmarked against a database of 60,000 managers and of those within your organisation
- Be supported by DVD based learning materials - Managing to Excel and 360 feedback tools
- Use for selection & assessment to get the best!
- Approved by the ILM.

What does the MAP Assessment measure? Map Assessment measures 12 core competencies grouped into 4 clusters. It also reports a managers communication style, personal style and management style. The 12 core competencies are detailed below.

Managing Your Job

- Time Management and Prioritising
- Planning & Scheduling Work
- Setting Goals and Standards

Thinking Clearly

- Identifying and Solving Problems
- Making Decisions and Weighing Risk
- Thinking Clearly and Analytically

Building the Team

- Appraising People and Performance
- Training Coaching and Delegating
- Disciplining and Counselling

Relating to Others

- Getting Unbiased Information
- Giving Clear Information
- Listening and Organising

Dates & Locations:

You decide! All of our programmes are bespoke and with you in mind. We deliver our programmes throughout the UK, to include London, Manchester, Birmingham and also deliver internationally.

Map Assessment is delivered over 2 separate days, either running concurrently and more frequently, with a short gap inbetween.

Who is it for?

- Any level of manager to include Junior, Middle, Senior and Executive management.
- Aspirant managers.
- Individual's looking for something to support their current working practice.
- Organisations who know that their success is based on the competence of its leaders and managers.

How much?

The standard MAP Assessment is a 2 day programme. MAP Assessment £619.99 per person.

12 x Learning to Excel remote learning modules = £199.99 per personl.

MAP 360 Feedback = £134.99 per person

Developing
Potential (UK)

0800 043 5730

www.developing-potential.co.uk